

DIPS collaborates with parents and the community to help students excel in STEAM disciplines, become lifelong learners, and contribute actively to society, all while promoting their well-being in a supportive and inclusive environment.